CAMP JOY'S DOCTRINAL STATEMENT AGREEMENT:

Doctrinal Statement

Please carefully read and sign the following doctrinal statement.

I am a born-again believer, and I believe ...

- in the biblical account of creation.
- in the plenary, verbal inspiration of the Bible.
- in the eternal, triune God.
- in the incarnation and virgin birth of the Lord Jesus Christ.
- in the sinless life and substitutionary atonement of Jesus Christ on the cross.
- in the bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ from the grave.
- in the eternal punishment of the unsaved in a literal, burning hell.
- in the second coming of Jesus Christ.
- in salvation by faith through the shed blood of Jesus Christ.
- in a separated stand from the world and unto the Word of God.
- in a separated stand from any ecumenical group, from cults, and from the charismatic movement.

STANDARDS FOR CAMP JOY SUMMER MINISTRY TEAM MEMBERS

1. Must be a born-again Christian.
2. Must sign the doctrinal statement from conviction, not convenience.
3. Must maintain a maturing spiritual walk with God in order to be always ministering to the needs of others.
4. Must be faithful in daily personal devotions, spending time in Bible reading and prayer.
5. Must maintain a separated position on things of this world, such as: worldly music, dancing, movies, smoking, alcohol, drugs, filthy language, and personal appearance.
6. Must reflect the testimony of Christ in personal appearance at all times and abide by the dress regulations of the institution throughout the entire summer.
7. Must love young people. Love is a self-sacrificing desire to meet the loved person's needs.
8. Must maintain loyalty toward camp leaders. No griping; constructive suggestions welcomed.
9. Must be faithful, dependable, and responsible. These qualities are not optional.
10. Must adhere to staff dating regulations. Socializing among staff while camp is in session is discouraged. Physical contact between guys and girls is not permitted at any time.

I have carefully read and agree to abide by the above Staff Standards during the entire time I am at Camp Joy, if I am offered a position.
