MARRIAGE ON TARGET - INTIMACY

Men and women are from different cultures. Our brains are wired differently from each other and our hormonal systems are completely different too. Small wonder that men and women look at the bedroom differently too. God commands husbands and wives to submit themselves to one another and minister to the other in a language our spouse understands. The wonderful God-created world of marital intimacy is another place where we can learn the culture of our spouse and get better at ministering to each other.
