Medical & Activity Consent

I give Camp Joy my consent to secure any necessary medical treatment for me during the camping period. I also authorize any qualified physician to render treatment he or she deems necessary upon consultation with camp staff. I realize my insurance will be billed for any medical treatment as the primary coverage. I understand if I have a communicable disease, sickness, or lice and/or nits, camp reserves the right to take appropriate precautions, including dismissal. In order to provide a Christ honoring and positive atmosphere, campers are expected to abide by all Camp Joy rules. I understand that Camp Joy is a Christian camp where Christian principles will be taught. The camp reserves the right to send campers home who choose not to adhere to the camp's conduct guidelines. I acknowledge that if I am dismissed from camp there will be no refund. I am aware that Camp Joy offers a variety of competitive and challenging recreational activities. While Camp Joy takes precautions to insure the safety of all attendees, it is understood that accidents or risks of bodily injury may occur. I intend by my signature a complete and unconditional release of the camp for all liability to the greatest extent allowed by the law. I also agree that photos or videos of me can be used for promotional purposes without compensation

Retreat Speaker

Scott Crabtree is the pastor of LifeSigns Deaf Baptist Church. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at the age of 17. At the age of 19, he moved to Oklahoma to attend Bible college where he met his wife, Tricia. They have 3 children; Scottie, Jessalyn, and Brooklynn. Tricia, is a certified interpreter (CI/CT) who works with Scott in the ministry. She is also a songwriter. Scott and Tricia have worked with the Deaf for over 30 years.

Childcare will be available to you during the service times.
